

Loyola Represents Belgium At Model U.N. Assembly

New York, April 11 (by wire)—Loyola College's International Relations Club representatives to the Twenty-Third Annual Model General Assembly of the United Nations, held this year at the College of the City of New York, completed their actual committee work this evening after a full day of meeting with the delegates of 47 other colleges of the Middle Atlantic Region.

"Representing" Belgium at the Assembly, the Loyolans James Dietz, David Preller, Joseph Sills, and Peter Stehle arrived here last evening. They were accompanied by Dr. Harry W. Kirwin, moderator. After a plenary session at Lake Success tomorrow, they will return to Baltimore.

Heard Ambassadors Speak

At the first plenary session of the group, yesterday evening, they heard an address by His Excellency, Hernan Santa Cruz, ambassador of Chile.

This afternoon, at a special session, they attended an address by His Excellency Norman Makin, ambassador of Australia.

Accommodated in Dorms

The Evergreen representatives went to their respective committees this morning. Preller attended the Political and Security Committee; Stehle, the U. N. Machinery Committee; and Sills, the Social, Cultural, and Humanitarian Committee.

While here, the Loyolans were provided with accommodations at the CCNY Army Hall Dormitory. Together with the other delegates, they ate at the college dining hall.

(Editor's Note: Mr. Dietz served as chairman of the Social, Cultural and Humanitarian Committee. The purpose of this and the other committees was to approve and submit resolutions to the Model General Assembly.)

Irr Made Chairman Of Advisory Council

Henry Pittman Irr, prominent financier and civic leader, has succeeded William J. Casey as chairman of the Lay Advisory Council of the College. His election at a recent meeting accompanied the induction of Llogard I. Whiteford, Pierce J. Flanagan and George W. Constable into the body, which is an honorary group acting in an advisory capacity to the administration.

Mr. Irr, presently president of the Baltimore Federal Savings and Loan Association, Maryland's largest, is also a councilman of the International Union of Building Societies and Savings and Loan Associations. He is or has been active in a long series of civic and professional groups, including the Maryland State Planning Commission, the Committee on Governmental Efficiency and Economy, the Board of Associated Catholic Charities and the National Conference of Christians and Jews.

He has been president of the Maryland League of Building and Loan Associations, the Southeastern Group conference of the United States League and the United States Savings and Loan League.

Born in Buffalo, New York, in 1898, Mr. Irr is a graduate of the Baltimore City College. He saw World War I service with the U. S. Marine Corps.

Three Loyolans At Conference

Three delegates from Loyola are attending the NFCCS national congress, due to end tomorrow, in Pittsburgh. Edward Pula, Joseph McManus and Neil Bathon form part of the annual congress, which is carrying out the theme of "Social Action and the Catholic Student Community."

Thomas A. Brickley, national president of the student group, to which every Loyola student as well as each of 1,400,000 other undergraduates belongs, is directing the sessions. Today's meetings will conclude official business and hear public resolutions, with final ceremonies tomorrow to include a report from President Harry S. Truman.

Every spring such a congress is held on a theme thought timely enough to serve as the basis of an integrated program of activity for the next school year. According to the executive secretary of the National Federation of Catholic College Students, "a program in the field of social action immediately brings to mind a certain few basic areas which must be included, i. e., group relations and industrial and labor relations . . . international relations, and family relations and the tremendously wide field of government . . . in short, the areas of 'Observe' and 'Judge'."

According to this officer, "the only proper motivation for entry into the field of social action is a real desire for the reChristianization of society." At present, the NFCCS has four national commissions, and many regional groups active in racial and international matters.

Six Scholarships Awarded High School Seniors In Competition

Six high school seniors were awarded scholarships to Loyola College as a result of competitive examinations held Saturday, April 1, according to an announcement by the Rev. Matthew G. Sullivan, S.J. Full scholarships have been assigned to Richard Slaven, of Franklin High School, and Charles Debellus, of Mt. St. Joseph's. John A. Lotts, of Loyola High School; Wilson Lochte, Calvert Hall College; Bernard Weigman, Loyola High School; and Marvin Feldstein, Baltimore City College will receive half scholarships.

One hundred and thirty-three high school seniors, representing thirteen schools, participated in the tests. All academic high school seniors from schools within the State of Maryland were eligible to take the examinations, which were divided into three parts: scholastic aptitude, mathematics and English.

A full scholarship meets all tuition costs, except books, fees and other incidentals. A half scholarship provides for one-half of a student's tuition.

The students who took the examinations were guests of the college at luncheon and attended the lacrosse game between Loyola and Johns Hopkins University. Testing took place between 9:00 a.m. and 12:00 noon.

Scholarship holders must maintain a 75 percent average in all courses.

Greyhound Shifts Staff; Dietz Named As Editor

James H. Dietz has been named editor-in-chief of THE GREYHOUND following the resignation of Edward O. Clarke, Jr., who has been forced to resign owing to other commitments. Clarke now acts as associate editor of the student publication.

Dietz reports on the IRC convention in New York City in this issue. He attended as chairman of one of four committees composed of members from colleges throughout the country.

Jr. Prom Is Next Friday

The Junior Prom of the Clues of 1951 at the Country Club of Maryland next Friday evening will culminate a year of planning. Wilson Beau will announce the arrival of an expected 110 couples during the formal affair, which was over-subscribed nearly a month ago.

Among the attractions planned are dancing on the patio of the club, if weather permits; favors for both young ladies and their escorts; refreshments; and the popular music and merry-making of the Rivers Chambers musicians. The renewed "Mexican Shuffle" or bat dance is promised, as well as the inevitable plaint, "They Cut Down the Old Pine Tree."

Optional Formal Dress

The late April date caused the committee to allow optional winter or summer formal wear. That committee is under the chairmanship of Thomas Ooster, and business details were handled by William Kneavel. Eugene Conroy has been in charge of finances, and John Kelly is overseeing the preparation of the program. The class sponsor and Junior Counselor is the Rev. Aloysius Mack, S.J.

Among those who have made their reservations are John Schanberger, Robert Davis, David Metzger, Lawrence Godey, Andrew McCormick and Eugene Corrigan. This group is assisting with financial arrangements.

Strictly Reserved

Others planning to attend are George Fitzpatrick, Francis Hubbard and Edward Miller, who have composed the committee procuring favors. William Monaghan, Robert Freeze, Xavier Trainor, Pierce Almes, Edward Howser and Paul Wagner have assisted with the program preparation.

All tables will be reserved. There will be no admission except by verified reservation, and the guest list is drawn from dues-paid class members.

Leinkuhler Prominent In Planning

Planning for the prom began in the Spring of 1949, when class president Edwin Leinkuhler led the selection of committees. He is credited with much of the success of the plans by the other committee members.

Chaperons will include besides Fr. Mack, the Rev. Francis X. Talbot, S.J., the Rev. Joseph A. d'Avalliers, S.J., the Rev. James Walsh, S.J., the Rev. Leo G. Monaghan, S.J., Dr. Harry Kirwin, and Mr. and Mrs. Harold R. Dirkin.

There will be no queen selected, as the dates of class officers will join the reception group. An innovation planned is the escorting of each couple to its table by this reception party.

Alumni Doings

Alumni Select April 30 For Communion Breakfast

by John J. Pugh, '43

Next on the alumni calendar is the annual Communion Breakfast on Sunday, April 30. This is one activity that we refuse to urge you to attend. If the idea itself doesn't bring about your attendance, nothing we could say would.

The Class of January, '43, is planning a reunion in the Oak Room on Saturday, May 13. A new inducement will be attempted. The affair will be "drag" in the hope that the wives will drag their husbands away from the fireside for long enough to attend.

We received too late for publication in the last issue an invitation to attend the wedding tomorrow of Paulina Rosa Peters and Bob Dougherty, '43. By the time this paper reaches most of you we will have already supervised the affair in the interest of all the '43-ers. Tough luck to the rest of you; good luck to Paulina and Bob!

Soon to travel down the same trail are Mary Agnes Nodder and James J. Pokarty, III, and Margaret Mary Linhard and Andrew J. Oler. We'll pass along the dates as soon as our agents report.

Frank J. Feld, '43, reports from snowy California that he has been unable to get together with the Navy on a renewal of contract. He expects to return home a free agent early in May and enroll at Johns Hopkins for post-graduation work. An expected addition to the family has influenced both decisions.

Mendel Club Starts Activity After Recovery Of Moderator

The Mendel Club has resumed activities following the recovery of its moderator, the Rev. Joseph S. Dlinach, S. J. Donald E. Cahill used the topic of "Germ Warfare" when addressing the club at its March 25 meeting.

On April 25, the group will hear John M. Eckert speak on "Extrasensory Perception." The concluding lecture of the Seminar program will be "Hormones and Behavior" by Charles J. Foley, Jr.

The Mask and Rapier Dramatic Society will hold its traditional post-performance party tomorrow night at 8:30 p.m. in the Veterans of Foreign Wars hall, Harford Road near Allen Avenue, Humilton. Admission to the affair has been set at $2.00, payable in advance.

Edwin Watson, production manager of Thy Kingdom Come, has been appointed to handle all decorations for the affair. Jerry Uhlhorn will head the committee in charge of refreshments.

All members of the society and friends have been invited to attend. Howard France and Norman Karolenko are managing the collection of admissions.

Highlight of the affair will be the election of next year's officers.

'49-50 Annual Goes To Press

by Daniel Downey

Copy for this year's edition of the Greyhound Annual has gone to the printers for final editing, according to Ferd Leimkuhler, editor of the publication. Distribution of the annual is scheduled for the week of May 22, at which time the book may be obtained in the Campus Shop free of charge to all students upon presentation of the Student's Registration Card.

Main feature of the one hundred page yearbook is "Chronicle Of The Year," a synopsis of all the major events during the past collegiate year, written by Eugene Corrigan. The cover for the annual will be of simulated tan leather with the seal of the College and the words "Loyola Of The East" emblazoned on it in green.

Plans call for publication of a supplement, covering Spring sports, activities and June graduation. However, financial difficulties may make this impossible, unless, according to Leimkuhler, additional patrons are acquired. Patron blanks are available in the yearbook office, he added.

The yearbook is so arranged that the twelve page supplement can be inserted by removing a cardboard section in the rear of the book.

National And Local Employment Outlook Viewed As 'Uncertain'

Five hundred thousand college students will be seeking employment this June, according to statistics released by officials of the United States Labor Department. Coupled with this announcement was the disclosure that the trend in unemployment was swinging "very mildly" upward.

Dietz Wins Lee Oratory Award

James Dietz, '50, was judged winner of the annual Lee Oratorical Contest held on March 31 in the Loyola College Library. Topic of Dietz's eulogy was "Jackson, His Source Of Strength."

Two other contestants, Donald Farber and Gayle Phillips, participated in the contest before an extremely sparse audience. Judges for the contest were David Snyder, Alan Antisdel, and John Pugh, instructors in the College's Department of English.

Dietz discussed how General "Stonewall" Jackson was able to defeat the Union Army at Manassas despite being outnumbered in material and troops. He stressed Jackson's strong moral character and the psychological effect it had on the Confederate soldiers, thereby inspiring them off to victory at Manassas.

Farber offered an unbiased approach to the international situation and the cold war. Phillips, the concluding speaker, elaborated on "We Have Nothing To Fear But Fear Itself."

Sometime in the near future, the Lee Gold Medal for Oratory will be presented to the winner. This medal, founded by Mrs. Josephine Lee, is awarded to the student who is judged winner on the basis of composition and delivery.

Council Hears Many Reports

The Student Council meeting of March 30 was occupied mostly with reports from activities, and with a request that two members of the Freshman class be granted the Council's approbation in an attempt to obtain the refreshment concession at all school affairs not served by the Slater System. Dates for the coming student elections were also decided.

James Garland reported for the Freshman class that a moonlight cruise is being planned. Garland later introduced the motion concerning the concession at dances and ball games. Michael Zedalis reported the Athletic Association had already made such provision, and the motion was tabled.

The Alpha Sigma Nu delegate reported the final selection of candidates to the honorary fraternity had been accomplished, and the names are now being considered by the national office of the group. The Cosmopolitan Club announced two record dances planned for April 28 and May 19.

The Quarterly hopes to publish once before the end of the school year, according to John Hull. The editors are now awaiting the arrival of sets of poetry from Courtney Johnson and Clifford Neer.

Dates for the Student elections were changed slightly from the constitutionally regulated ones, due to the Easter holidays. They appear on page one of this issue.

Present unemployment was estimated at 4,750,000, with the prediction that job prospects for 1950 graduates would be worse than any year since the war. Cause of the unemployment has been attributed to lack of industry expansion in the last year and a half and the substitution of machines for unskilled workers.

Education Requirements Higher

Edward Clague, the Labor Department's Commissioner of Labor Statistics, stated that employers will place higher educational requirements on available jobs. He advised students to pursue their studies beyond undergraduate work.

Henry L. Zerhusen, director of the Loyola College Guidance and Placement Bureau, in a recent statement, disclosed that there is little to distinguish the local picture from the national outlook. Unemployment in Baltimore is high and few requests from employers indicate a not too favorable situation for those entering the labor force in the near future, he said.

Cites Causes

He attributed the causes to greater efficiency in production and improved personnel selection. Outstanding college students, he pointed out, will not experience too much difficulty in securing desirable employment. Selective employment processes operate to their advantage, he added.

He went on to say, the others, however, will be subjected to a readjustment phase involving both their objectives and the method of attaining them. With the college graduate potential of 1944 and thereafter converted to reality, requirements for various fields of employment have advanced.

Summs Up Situation

In summing up the employment situation for science and business administration students, Mr. Zerhusen said, "Today, personnel specifications for science students require applicants to state post graduate study and specialization. It is apparent, therefore, that consideration should be given to post graduate study by those anticipating employment in the science field."

Business administration student's lack of specialization was noted as being advantageous, since this made them "more conducive to a better readjustment to the current situation." He warned these students that improved personnel selection during the post war years has eliminated somewhat the "management trainee" employment status so highly desired.

State Department To Hold Foreign Service Post Exams

State Department competitive written examinations for the position of Foreign Service Officer, Class 6, will be held on September 5 to 8, 1950, in several cities in the United States. Applications and pamphlets entitled Preparing for a Career in the Foreign Service are available at the College Guidance and Placement Office.

Applicants must be at least 21 years of age and under 31 years of age. They must have been American citizens for at least ten years prior to July 1, 1950, and not married to aliens.

Gary, Stehle, Kelley Get Graduate Science Awards

Three Loyola seniors, Peter Stehle, Joseph Kelley and Robert Gary, have been awarded Fellowships for graduate work in chemistry to begin their studies toward their Master's degrees.

All three will graduate from Loyola this July. Stehle and Gary will major in Physical Chemistry while Kelley's major will be Inorganic Chemistry.

A graduate of Mt. St. Joseph's High, Stehle is vice-president of the Loyola Student Council at the present time. He will attend Purdue University next year, receiving $1,200 in addition to laboratory fees and tuition.

Chemistry Club President

He was president of the Chemistry Club in 1949 and an IRC delegate. Last year he represented the ITC at a model U. N. convention. He is the Gynymoun selection for Meet the Student in this issue.

Joseph Kelley will attend Fordham University by virtue of obtaining a Fellowship which will entitle him to $800, laboratory fees and tuition. He is a 1947 graduate of Loyola High School.

At Evergreen he is Photo Editor of THE GREYHOUND and a member of the photography staff of the Evergreen Annual. He is also vice-president of the Chemistry Club.

Robert Gary will receive a Fellowship to Yale University which has the same conditions as Kelley's—$800, laboratory fees and tuition. He has been a laboratory assistant to Mr. Thompson this year at Loyola.

'Greyhound' Staff Sets Party Date

The staff of THE GREYHOUND will hold its annual banquet May 21, according to a tentative announcement made by Edward O. Clarke, Jr., retiring editor.

Clarke is chairman of the affair and will check the date with the Social Secretary of the Student Council, J. Walter Smyth, in the near future.

At the banquet the staff for the 1950-51 year will be announced. As yet no guest speaker has been contacted, but several prominent local newspapermen are under consideration.

The party will be stag and will probably be held off-campus. Last year it was held at the Hotel Emerson.

The party will be restricted to members of THE GREYHOUND staff. Also on the agenda is the formation of a Greyhound Press Club, which will be a social organization for members of the staff.

The Critilog

by Malcolm S. Rose

Charles Perrault's "Cinderella" has provided Walt Disney with inspiration for a truly great feature-length cartoon. Critics have hailed it as Disney's best although "Fantasia" was wider in scope.

As usual, production teams with unforgettable animals, such as Lucifer, a sadistic cat, perpetually wearing a look resembling an instructor contemplating a surprise quiz; Bruno, an indolent and good-natured hound; and Gus-Gus, a loyal mouse with little intellectual acumen.

Delighting the audience with fine singing, fair acting, and excellent choreography, the Alamedan Light Opera Company presented Victor Herbert's "Sweethearts." The chorus including Loyolans Larry Goady and Joe Paska, provide admirable support for soloists Helen Singer, Francis Roberts, and especially the thrilling renditions of Charles Carson.

A most unusual filmplay is "The Man on the Eiffel Tower" directed by Burgess Meredith, and produced by Franchot Tone and Irving Allen. Photographed entirely in Paris, the production combines the lush settings of that city with a murder chase made up of Charles Laughton as the chief of police and a pair of suspects who are in dire need of (1) a sanctuary, and (2) a qualified psychiatrist.

Despite a set of inept soloists, Beethoven's "Choral" symphony was most admirably presented by Reginald Steward and the Baltimore Symphony Orchestra with the Peabody Chorus under the direction of Ifor Jones. Based on Schiller's "Ode of Joy," it was a thunderous thing to behold and hear.

African Violet Fans To Meet In Capitol

(The following are excerpts from a press release of the Metropolitan African Violet Society. THE GREYHOUND feels that the African Violet enthusiasts of Loyola College would be most interested.)

"Mrs. William O. Husted looks forward to meeting fans from all parts of the land who are coming to Washington next week to the 26th National Flower Show at the National Guard Armory. AV enthusiasts (the initials are an accepted abbreviation among collectors) form a nation-wide fraternity with the violet-like flower as a tie that binds.

"It is the foliage, not gender, which designated the plants as 'Boys' or 'Girls'. 'Girl' plants have a graceful, ruffled edged leaf with a white spot at the base. The 'Boys' have uniform green leaves more pointed in form, with smooth edges."

According to the release, Washington is well out in front of other American cities as far as the cultivation of African Violets goes. "Eight out of ten women in the Metropolitan area own at least one African Violet plant and don't know what to do with it."

Students Get Tour Offers

Loyola Students who wish to spend their summer vacations traveling have the choice of a number of tours of Europe and South America, sponsored by various student organizations. These are in addition to the Holy Year tours.

The Castle will be open to students from June 1 to September 9.

Cost will be $5.00 a day in addition to traveling expenses.

Applications are being accepted for the fourth annual session of the summer school for American Students at the University of Oslo, Norway from June 26 to August 5. The course will emphasize Norwegian culture.

Six semester credits may be earned during the session. Total cost is $470. For further information write to St. Olaf College, Northfield, Minnesota.

Students inclined toward art may study at the Mexican Art Workshop in Taxco, Mexico, July 10 to August 14. To be eligible, students must have some training in the Arts and advanced Spanish.

Best man will be Thomas L. Padden, '48. Ushers will be James Norrns, '48, and Francis X. Gallagher, '49. Gallagher was editor-in-chief of THE GREYHOUND in 1949.

Mr. Watts Relates Career In England And America

It's rather surprising to note that Mr. Henry Watts, who was recently named curator of rare books and assistant librarian of Loyola College is in so scholarly a profession. For his ancestry shows three centuries of seafaring men.

Mr. Watts holds degrees from two English Universities, A.B. from the University of London and a Bachelor of Music from Durham University. After his education was completed he began his career as a member of the Anglican Benedictine Community of Caldey Island, South Wales which became Catholic in 1913.

Comes To America

After his release from the Order following the conversion Mr. Watts came to America where he took the post of Associate Editor of The Lamp, published by the Society of the Atonement at Garrison, N. Y. In 1914 he became editorial secretary and assistant librarian of America, the National Catholic Jesuit review.

Upon the United States' entry into World War I he returned to England after working on the New York Times. Until 1925 he filled a confidential post at the English Foreign Office in London.

He was associate editor of the 1926 edition of the Encyclopedia Britannica, and later worked under the late Rev. Joseph Kenting, S. J.

Becomes Scriptor

On Fr. Keating's recommendation he became scriptor to the Sacred Congregation of Rites in the Cause of the English Martyrs, taking the Oath of Secrecy in the Chapter of Westminster Cathedral at the hands of Dom Cuthbert Butler, O. S. B., Abbot of Downside.

In 1930 he returned to the United States and became a member of the editorial staff of America, where he worked for 15 years. On the invitation of the Very Rev. Francis X. Talbot, President of Loyola College, he came to Evergreen in 1947.

RUNNING WITH

by Bob Bourbon

Loyola's impressive victory over Lehigh University in its baseball opener some 10 days ago proved to be a success in more ways than one. To Coach Lefty Reitz the 11-to-1 score indicated that after a poor season last year, things were definitely looking up for 1950. To one of the fellows on the team, Bill Tucker, it meant more than just winning a game, much more.

Bill has quite a background as a ball player. An All-Maryland diamond and grid selection in high school although playing with a weak Forest Park team, he entered Loyola in 1947. In his first year of action with the Greyhound nine he batted .297 while running the pastures of center-field. During the fall of 1948, however, while playing sandlot football, he suffered a broken neck, an injury which was almost fatal. At any rate, it was thought that he would never play ball again.

The Lehigh game represented Bill's first bit of athletic activity after a long period of compulsory inaction, and he deserves a lot of credit for trying to pick up again where he left off. There's always a certain amount of risk, both to him and reputation, in this sort of thing, but his play in early games has left nothing to be desired.

The trouble with these would-be comeback stories, they all have to end happily. Bill saved us the trouble on this one. On his first time up at bat he hit a double.

All In A Day's Work

After last Thursday's baseball game with Vermont, if short-stop Ed Hagerly doesn't do another thing all year, he's earned his keep. His teammates carried him from the field following his performance against the traveling New Englanders. All he did was to tie up a 2-to-1 game in the eighth with a double which drove home a run, and he doubled again in the last half of the tenth with the bases loaded, to bring home the winning run.

Mike Zedalis, Greyhound center-fielder, has also been wielding a wicked bat. In an exhibition game two weeks ago he drove two tremendous homers, one of them into the handball court, over 415 feet from home plate in center, and the other bounced off the gym wall, a good 400 feet. Last Saturday in the Syracuse game he poled one that bounced in the dirt track next to the gym, and it's probably still rolling.

They're nice guys to have on your side.

'Taint Fair To The Fair Sex

All things being about equal, there just doesn't seem to be room yet in a man's collegiate sports world for a little bitty ol' gal. The young lady to whom we're referring is Miss Dot Meredith, number six (man?) on Towson State Teachers' tennis team. The Knights opened Loyola's 1950 season on April 4, and although they lost, 9 to 0, an enjoyable afternoon was had by all, all Loyola fans, that is.

Fortunately, the feature match of the day, between Miss Meredith and our own Tom McDermott turned out well for the home cause, McDermott winning, 6-4, 6-1.

It's a good thing he did. Otherwise he could have never explained it to his friends.

Believe It Or Not

Loyola's racquet team uses 27 new tennis balls each match. Multiplied by 23 regularly scheduled matches that would make 621 a season. Retailing at $.50 apiece, tennis would seem to be an expensive proposition . . . The golf team's Jack Cronin, is a combination coach, manager, and trainer, plays a pretty good game, too. He's about the best in the state . . . Coach Lefty Reitz just can't believe his eyes nowadays when he sees his starting pitcher warming up to go back out for the fourth or fifth inning. So far his hurling staff has an ERA of less than one run a game. It didn't used to be that way.

Loyola Netmen Lose, 9-0; First Shutout In 3 Years

The Red Raiders of Colgate University handed Loyola's Tennis squad its first defeat of the current season when they downed the Greyhounds at Evergreen on April 7 by a 9-to-0 score.

The Raiders took the match in stride as only Jerry Laroque, the College's No. 1 man and the Maryland Intercollegiate champ, was able to extend his opponent to three sets. Laroque was beaten by Bill Lust on counts of 2-6, 6-1 and 6-0.

Although he did not carry his foe to the limit, John Darrell, playing in the No. 2 spot for Loyola, forced Bob Milgrim of Colgate to go all out to win in straight sets, 7-5 and 6-4.

The shutout marked the first time a Green and Grey tennis team has been whitewashed in the past three years.

The results:

SINGLES

Lust defeated Laroque, 2-6, 6-1, 6-0.
Milgrim defeated Darrell, 7-5, 6-4.
Stern defeated Ward, 6-3, 6-3.
Barker defeated Barnell, 6-1, 6-3.
Bleknel defeated Bateman, 6-3, 6-3.
Nelson defeated McDermott, 6-3, 6-1.

DOUBLES

Lust and Milgrim defeated Laroque and Ward, 6-2, 6-0.
Stern and Barker defeated Darrell and Bateman, 6-2, 6-0.
Stanton and Nelson defeated Barnell and McDermott, 6-3, 6-1.

BACK YOU GO says Mr. first-baseman as Tom Lind tries to take a lead against Syracuse. The game, played last Saturday, was the Greyhounds' first defeat. They lost, 3 to 1.

Green And Grey In 3-1 Game As Syracuse University Wins

Syracuse University's baseballers handed the Greyhounds their first loss of the season last Saturday afternoon by defeating the host team 3 to 1 at Evergreen.

The victors went hitless for the first eight innings, but managed to push across two unearned runs in the eighth on three Loyola errors. The visitors scored another run in the ninth.

Zedalis Hits Homer

Loyola's lone tally came in the last inning when Mike Zedalis poled a homer into deep centerfield. The blow was the Hounds' fourth hit of the game.

Carl Eckles started on the hill for the Redmen and was relieved in the sixth by Bill Mercer who was charged with the loss. Tom Ward and Don Semesky also went to the mound for the College before the game was over.

Two Double Plays

The Greyhound infield combination of Mel Wright, Reds Schneider and Ed Hagerly came up with two twin killings during the course of the tilt as they played errorless ball afield.

The game was a pitchers' duel all the way as the two squads were able only to get to the opposing tosses for six hits in all. Besides Zedalis' homer, the only other extra base knock was a triple by Hank Dotterer, the Syracuse catcher.

Bill Tucker and Tom Lind of Loyola along with New Yorker Jim Godfrey were credited with stolen bases.

Maryland Wins Lacrosse Tilt

Barry Injured As Hounds Drop Second Start

The contest, played under inter-quarter in which the Greyhounds took a one goal lead, the University of Maryland's Lacrosse team handed Loyola its second defeat in as many Saturdays, bouncing the Green and Grey, 13 to 5, at College Park, on April 8.

The contest, played under intermittently sunny and rainy skies, looked like anybody's game up until as late as the fourth quarter. At that point the Terps clicked for six quick goals, and wrapped up the verdict.

Whelan Gets Three

High man for Loyola was defenseman Jim Whelan, who scored three goals. The visitors' other goals were scored by Tom Oaster and Tom Wagner. Charlie Herberl and Hank Lowry, with three and four markers, sparked the Terrapins' attack.

The play of both goalies, Skip Barry of Loyola, and Bill Larash, of Maryland, was exceptional. Barry, however, was lost midway in the final quarter when he suffered a nose injury.

Baker Substitutes Freely

The Greyhounds' Coach, Bish Baker, substituted copiously, using almost a score of operatives, in an attempt to bridge a defensive mid-field gap. The lack of depth in the midfield had much to do with the high score.

For Loyola it was its second loss of the season. Maryland has won three out of four.

Brunk, Rose Sparkle In Opener; Greyhounds Second In Tri-Meet

In a triangular track meet held at Evergreen on March 5 Loyola took second to Roanoke College, from Virginia. Third place went to Gallaudet. It was the Greyhounds' first scheduled contest of the season. The dual tabulations were Roanoke 69½, Loyola 53, Gallaudet 27½.

Loyola was able to win only two individual first places, Jason Brunk in the broad jump, and freshman Malcolm Rose in the high jump. Brunk was good for 19' 11" in the broad jump, and Rose cleared 5' 5" in the latter event.

The big gun for the Roanoke team was Bruce who was high scorer for the day with 15 points. He captured first place in the mile, half mile, and the two mile.

High scorers for Loyola were Tom Maskell and Brunk, each with 7 points. Maskell ran second in the quarter-mile and the 220 low hurdles, and fourth in the 120 high hurdles.

Captain Walt Smyth picked up points for the Hounds in both hurdle events. He was second in the 120 high hurdles, and third to Maskell in the high hurdles.

George Brown finished fourth in the mile, behind teammate Tom Volaille, and he nailed down a second in the two-mile.

Joe Coyne placed second in the half-mile, and George Fields won seconds in both the 100 and 220 dashes.

Stickmen Drop Season Opener

by Geno Conroy

Loyola's lacrosse team dropped its opening game of the season at Evergreen on April 1, as it bowed to Johns Hopkins University, 13 to 2. The game also marked Hopkins' opening bid in defense of its national intercollegiate lacrosse championship.

It was not until the final quarter of the contest that the Greyhounds managed to dent the Blue Jays' netting, and then it was Charlie Wagner who, after scooping up the ball on the left side of the cage, crossed in front of the goal and flipped the ball past the visitors' net-leader.

Barry's Work Outstanding

A few minutes later, Frank Kimmol, coming from behind the goal, ended the College's scoring for the day as he pushed in a back-hand shot from the left.

The day's outstanding performance, however, came from Goalle Skippy Barry who on 27 different occasions thwarted the Hopkins attack with his defensive work.

Defense Unit Holds

For Hopkins, the scoring was evenly split among the attack with Freddie Smith, Byron Forbush and Bob Sandall each scoring twice, and the remaining goals being spread amongst seven other players.

With but four minutes of the first half to be played, the visitors were leading only by a 3-0 score as they found Loyola's close defense unit of Bob Freeze, George Thomas and Frank Potterfield more resistant than expected. Hopkins hit for three quick tallies in the remaining minutes, though, to lead at halftime, 6 to 0.

Binglers Top Lehigh, Vermont; Hagerty Wields Booming Bat

Playlog under ideal weather conditions Loyola's baseball team won its first game of the season in impressive fashion on Tuesday, April 4, besting Lehigh University, 11 to 1, at Evergreen.

The Greyhound runs were scored on 13 hits, three of them from the lusty ash of third-sacker Tommy Lind. Two of his knocks were for extra bases, both for doubles.

Amer, Semesky Pitch

Two pitchers shared the mound chores, limiting the Bethlehem, Pa. nine to four hits. John Amer went the first five frames, and he was succeeded by ex-first baseman Don Semesky, who went the rest of the route.

Six of the 11 Loyola runs were batted across by Ed Hagerty, shortstop, and George Franz, catcher.

For the Greyhounds it was the first of a 23-game schedule.

Hagerty Doubles

In their second tilt of the season played at Evergreen on April 6, the Hound binglers outscored the Catamounts of Vermont University 3 to 2 in a game that took ten innings to finish. Hagerty once again was the big man in the RBI column as he drove in two of the Greyhounds runs.

The first tally driven in by the Smiling Irishman came in the eighth as he doubled to right-center field scoring Mel Wright who had previously doubled to the right field line. This score sent the game into extra innings.

Matthews Gets Win

Hagerty's second RBI scored Mike Zedalis with the game's winning run in the bottom half of the tenth. This time the hard-hitting shortstop poked the horsehide past the right fielder when the bases were loaded.

Loyola's mound chores were in the hands of Dan Donohue, a sophomore hurler, and Bob Matthews, a freshman performer. Matthews, who relieved Donohue in the sixth, was credited with the win.

Alumni Bowling

The team of '50 pulled into a first place tie with the team of '48 by winning two of its games with Jan. '43 while '48 was dropping all three of its games with '49. The race is still quite close, for the sixth place team ('49) is only 5½ games out of first place.

The Board of Directors of the league held a meeting after the games rolled on March 28, and as a result of the meeting, the number of teams in the league has been cut from nine to eight. The team of '47 was dropped because of a failure on the part of the members of the team to attend the bowling sessions. Henceforth there will be no byes; each of the eight teams will roll each week, and with this new alignment it is expected that the league will complete the most successful season it has had in its three-year existence.

Joe Donohue's 106.29 is the high individual average of the league; Jack Delaney ('50) has moved into the runner-up position with a mark of 104.62.

Golfers Face Crusaders In Initial Home Match

At 2:00 P. M. today the Loyola College golfers will tee-off against Holy Cross College of Worcester, Mass. The match is being held at Mount Pleasant, Loyola's home course.

The Crusaders are expected to arrive in Baltimore with a strong aggregation of shot-makers which could well be one of the strongest teams that the Greyhounds face this season.

Cronin Counting On Veterans

Capt. Jack Cronin is relying on the services of veterans Jack Simanski, Mel Beeler, and Jim Pelisek and newcomers Walt Sibiski, Jack Cooney, and Bill Gross to halt the invasion from the North.

Sibiski played two seasons for Western Maryland before transferring to Loyola. Cooney was an alternate on last year's team, and Gross, a freshman, was a three-year standout at Loyola High School.

Pair Of M-D Foes

Next week the Hounds play host to two Mason-Dixon Conference opponents. On April 18 they take on Western Maryland at Bonnie View. With Capt. Al Bright as the only returnee from the 1949 squad, the Terrors are not expected to be too powerful.

The American University Eagles

Ball Nine Set For Eight Foes

Determined to better their 1949 league standing, when they finished in the lower depths of the division, the Varsity nine faces four important conference games in the next eleven days. During the same period, four non-league games are also on tap.

Tomorrow the Shoremea from Washington College travel to Evergreen in high hopes of repeating last year's 6-to-5 and 5-to-1 triumphs over the Hounds. However, Lefty Reitz's squad, consisting mainly of veterans from last year's team, have ideas quite to the contrary, and a tight game is forecast from the first to the last out.

St. Joe Non-League Foe

Two days later, the team journeys to Philadelphia where it encounters St. Joe in a non-league battle. Having split last year in their two meetings, this game also promises to be very interesting.

Western Maryland comes to town the next day for a Mason-Dixon contest and as was evidenced by the Hounds' free-scoring loss last year by the score of 20 to 21, anything can and usually does happen.

Catholic U. At Evergreen

In the following three days, the Greyhounds play three games, the first of which is against Catholic University at Evergreen. The Green and Grey bowed last season to the visitors by the score of 4 to 1.

The following two days finds the team meeting Albright College and Scranton University. Both games will be the second M-D foe of the week when they come to Mt. Pleasant on April 21. Led by Don Dedrick, the Eagles will have virtually the same line-up of divot-diggers that gave Loyola such a tough battle before bowling 5½ to 3½ in last year's match.

Webster Links Luminary

Sherwood Webster, A. U.'s new basketball sensation, is also a malstay of their links squad.

As are all American Univ. teams when playing Loyola, the Eagles will be "up" for this one.

The Greyhound squad will be out to regain the Mason-Dixon title which it captured in '49 and then dropped to Johns Hopkins in '49.

Courtmen Beat Teachers, 9-0

On April 4 the Greyhound Tennis team recorded its first victory of the '50 season by clean sweeping Towson State Teachers 9 to 0.

The hardest-fought contest was a two hour duel between John Darrell and Jack Downes, with Darrell taking the decisive third set 8-6.

Jerry Laroque and Ed Ward, after winning their individual matches, teamed in the doubles to defeat their opponents 6-0, 6-0.

This match also saw the debut of three new additions to the varsity squad namely, Bill Barnett, Bernale Bateman and Tom McDermott.

The Lineup

Veterans Barry, Whelan Pace Loyola 'Crossemen

Any sports fan will tell you that one of the main requisites for a well-balanced team is experience. In Loyola's frosh-studded lacrosse lineup are two highly capable seniors, veterans of many seasons, who hold key to the Hounds' know-how and 'crosse acumen. They are Goalie Skip Barry and Attackman Jim Whelan.

Barry is a four year veteran with the Greyhounds. He entered school in 1946, after graduating from Loyola High, where as a junior he was number one goal tender on the Dons' championship lacrosse squad. In his senior year of prep school he starred for the potent Baltimore Lacrosse Club.

Agile Net Minder

In May of this year, Skip will receive his degree. Looking back on his stick career at Evergreen, he lists the Loyola-Hopkins Game of 1949 as his most vivid memory, and well he might; for it was in this game that the underdog Hounds played the National Champions on even terms for three quarters. Barry's brilliant saves, the majority of which bordered on the spectacular, were mainly responsible for Loyola's gallant battle.

Very few fans will forget the agile senior's efforts in this year's Hopkins game, when time and again he repelled Blue Jay shots at point blank range. A great round of applause was accorded the Green and Grey netminder in this game when he successfully stopped three attempts in a row from the edge of the crease.

Whelan Completing Third Season

When asked what opposing player he feared the most, Barry answered, "I suppose Ray Greene. He has one of the hardest and trickiest shots in the game." Greene is the former Hopkins great, who is now a Midfielder for the Mount Washington Club.

The other senior in question is creaseman Jim Whelan, who is completing his third year on the varsity. Jim is a World War II veteran, formerly a ground crew man in the Air Corps. He entered Loyola in September, 1947, after playing one year of varsity lacrosse at Forest Park High School.

Yale Game Was Thrill

In his Freshman year, Whelan shared first-string crease duties with Jack Seal and Tom Oaster, but last year he took over the job permanently, and wound up the season as the highest scorer on the team. This year the 6 foot-2 inch attackman is expected to bear a good share of the Greyhound offense.

Probably his outstanding collegiate performance was in the Hopkins game of last season when he pumped in four goals. Asked what his biggest thrill in lacrosse was, Jim named the 1948 Yale game when: "I scored my first goal in college competition."

Replacing these two men next year is one job Coach Bish Baker would rather not undertake.

Nittany Lions, Western Md. Next On List Of Lacrosse Foes

by Bob McKelvy

Having recovered from a 13-2 drubbing at the hands of Johns Hopkins in the season's stick opener and patched their scars in last week's brush with Maryland at College Park, the Greyhound lacrosse team prepares to swing into a three-game home campaign.

This afternoon Bish Baker sends his charges against a highly regarded Penn State College team at Evergreen. The meeting marks the fifth outing for the two teams, Loyola having won one previously. Last season the Lions suffered defeat on their home grounds by a bare 6 to 4 score.

Statists Boast Balance

The State College team, boasting balance among a veteran crop of stickwielders, should give the Hounds stiff opposition as the home team goes after its first victory of the current season.

On Saturday, April 22, Western

Thinclads Face Mountaineers, Towson State

by Joe Steffens

Loyola College's trackmen will entertain Towson State Teachers College and Mt. St. Mary's in a triangular meet here at Evergreen on April 21.

Both Mt. St. Mary's and Towson's strength is undetermined at this writing but both squads should provide plenty of competition for the Greyhound footmen. This will be the Mountaineers second season in the track wars, having fielded an impromptu team last year.

Catholic U. Invitational

The following day, the Green and Grey will journey to Catholic University to participate in the Catholic U. Invitational meet.

Last year C. U. won the meet, nudging out Loyola, who copped second honors. American U. and Gallaudet were the other participants. However, a glance at the comparative times of the two squads rate C. U. and Loyola on a par for this year's event.

On April 25, the Hounds will encounter a strong Hopkins team at Evergreen. This is the first time that the two schools have met at Loyola since the end of the war.

Jays Paced By Grimm

The Blue Jays will once again be paced by Earl Grimm, considered one of the best millers in the East.

The Homewood team will be under the tutelage of a new coach, Clyde Heather, a graduate from Hopkins. Hopkins has never lost to a Loyola team. Coach McElroy is hoping for a large student turnout to back the team in its attempt to mar Hopkins' record.

Net Squad Alignment Set For LaSalle, Catholic U.

Today the Loyola College tennis little defenders play host to La Salle College of Philadelphia. The Explorers are the first in a series of seven matches which will be played within the next 12 days.

The other six teams are Washington College at home tomorrow, University of Maryland at College Park on the 17th, Western Md. at home the following day, with Catholic University following on April 20. The next day the Greyhound netmen move down Charles St. to be entertained by the Blue Jays of Johns Hopkins followed by a trip to Emmitsburg to tangle with Mt. St. Mary's on the 26th of April.

Catholic U. Match

While several of these matches loom as stiff competition, probably the most decisive tilt will be the Catholic U. encounter. This is the same squad to which the Hound swatters of last year suffered their only setback, and the Washingtonians figure to be the chief road block in the Evergreen racquet-wielders' bid to retain the M-D championship.

Most of the other teams seem to have improved from last year, too, so Vince Collmore's proteges have their work cut out for them. At present the line-up for the Greyhound squad has Capt. Jerry Laroque, John Darrell, Ed Ward, Bill Barnett, Bern Bateman, and Tom McDermott playing singles in this respective order.

Laroque And Ward At Doubles

Laroque and Ward are teamed at No. 1 doubles, Darrell and Bateman at No. 2, while Barnett and McDermott are paired for third doubles.

In their first outing of the season against Towson Teachers this lineup came through unscathed as a 9 to 0 whitewashing was registered over the Golden Knights. Since none of the players seemed too hard pressed, this tilt with the outclassed Towsonites showed little toward the final standings of the home team. But at the end of this week, Coach Collmore will have a pretty fair idea of the chances his aggregation has of again capturing the title. The big question is whether or not the Loyola courtiers have improved along with their opponents. Only time can tell.

Ball Nine Set . . .

will be played away in Pennsylvania.

Action After Three-Day Rest

After a well-earned three days rest, the varsity blazers swing back into action again at Homewood against Johns Hopkins. The Green and Grey gained two conference victories last season at the expense of the Jays by the almost identical scores of 8 to 3 and 8 to 2.

Mount St. Mary's entertains the varsity the following day in a Mason-Dixon league game. The Hounds also scored double victories over the Mount last year, belting them 23 to 2 and 7 to 2.

Meet the Students

Experience Stamps Stehle
As Capable Vice-President

Peter F. Stehle

Experience has placed its stamp of approval on Peter Fallon Stehle, vice-president of the Loyola College Student Council. Besides his duties as an officer of the Council, Stehle serves as president of the International Relations Club.

Last year he was elected vice-president of the Chemistry Club. His profound interest in chemistry resulted in his receiving a graduate fellowship to Purdue University.

When he enters Purdue next fall, his time will be divided between teaching and studying for his degree. How long it will take him to obtain his master's degree is uncertain, but Stehle estimates that it may be between two and three years.

As for his career upon graduation from Purdue, the twenty-three year old chemistry major is undecided. He admits, however, that his main interest is physical chemistry.

Stehle formerly lived in St. Edward's Parish, but later moved to St. Ann's. In 1945 he received his diploma from Mt. St. Joseph's High School, entering the service shortly afterward.

Originally, he was assigned to an armored division, but subsequently he was transferred to the personnel department, where he attained the rank of sergeant. Most of his time in the Army was spent in Munich. In the fall of 1947, shortly after his discharge, Stehle enrolled at Loyola College.

Senior Retreat
Starts Monday

The annual retreat for Seniors will begin on Monday, April 17, and continue through to Wednesday, April 19. Due to the large number of Seniors the retreat will be held at Manresa-on-the-Severn and on the Loyola Campus, this being made necessary because of the limited capacity of the Manresa retreat house.

Seniors will leave for Manresa on Monday afternoon and return Wednesday afternoon. This retreat will be conducted by Rev. Neil Gargan, S. J., president of Gonzaga High School and rector of St. Aloysius Parish in Washington, D. C.

For those students not attending the Manresa retreat, exercises will be on the campus, commencing on Monday morning and ending Wednesday morning with general Communion and Mass. The Rev. Charles McIntyre who is a member of the Jesuit Mission Band of the Maryland Province will direct the services.

A series of lectures will be presented simultaneously for the non-Catholic members of the class. However any non-Catholic who may wish to do so may attend the regular services.

Student Donors
Aid Recovery
Of Patient

Responding to a recent call for assistance by Edward Dorlan, '53, in behalf of a personal friend, Richard Kastner, Loyola students have made many blood donations to Union Memorial to replace the hospital's blood reserves used for the patient.

Some of the donations offered by members of the student body were of a type that was not acceptable, but these were received by the hospital and are being retained for future use in other cases.

Condition Improved

In return for blood donations, Union Memorial Hospital was prepared to offer the students financial reimbursements, but the majority of donors refused.

Kastner's condition is still serious, but the doctors believe that he is improving noticeably and attribute all credit to the constant blood supply given by Loyola students.

Donations Continue

Donations are still being taken, because Kastner requires daily transfusions and the hospital supply must be maintained constant at all times.

Students desiring to offer blood are requested to contact Dorlan so that they will be available for donations to the hospital.

Junior Sodality To Hold
Queen's Ball On May 12

The fourth annual Queen's Ball in Honor of Our Blessed Lady will be held on May 12, 1950, in the Loyola College Gymnasium from 9 until 1. The dance, sponsored by the Junior Sodality, will be semi-formal; in keeping with tradition, no corsages will be allowed.

Glee Club Will Attend Banquet

The Loyola College Glee Club will participate in a concert and banquet at the Maryland Yacht Club on the evening of Tuesday, April 18.

The affair is sponsored by the Maryland chapter of the Associated Male Chorus of America, which includes the Baltimore and Ohio Male Chorus, the York (Pa.) Y. M. C. A. Glee Club, the Loyola group and others.

Concert Scheduled

Mr. Felice Iula, moderator of the club, has also announced that the Loyolans will present a concert at the Mt. St. Agnes College Auditorium on Sunday, April 23, at 8:00 p. m.

This concert will be a preview of the program of the club's annual concert.

Preparing For Alcazar

The Glee Club's third annual concert will be held at the Alcazar on Friday, May 5. The program contains more than fifteen different selections and will be followed by a dance. The choristers will all be attired in formal dress.

Rehearsals for this concert are held thrice weekly in room 1-D.

Tickets for the affair will go on sale in the near future and may be obtained in the Campus Shop.

Ticket Sales Limited

Tickets for the dance are priced at $3.20 per couple. Sales will be limited owing to fire-department regulations. Tables will be reserved for those who order them.

The main feature of the dance will be the Court of Honor Promenade. The court, selected by the sodalists of Georgetown University, Washington, will hand out favors to all who attend.

To Select Court Of Honor

A contest to select the Court of Honor is now in progress. Any student who plans to attend the dance, may submit a photograph of his date, and four will be selected to serve on the court. The deadline for submitting these pictures is May 5.

Elaborate decorations are in preparation, together with the idea of placing a few tables outside the gym between the two South doors, weather permitting.

In State College, Pennsylvania, the favorite gathering spot of students at Pennsylvania State College is Graham & Sons because it is a cheerful place—full of friendly collegiate atmosphere. And when the gang gathers around, ice-cold Coca-Cola gets the call. For here, as in college haunts everywhere—Coke belongs.
